

Brent Mayr: A vehicular crime is any offense that is involving a motor vehicle and an allegation of either negligent or intoxicated driving. It can involve causing serious bodily injury to someone but really involves cases where someone is killed as a result of negligent or intoxicated driving.